A selling dealer may accept a copy of this certificate instead of collecting Florida sales tax when the tangible personal property sold is shipped by the selling dealer as required by the terms of the sale to the forwarding agent's designated address for export from the United States.

In accordance with section (s.) 212.06(5)(b)10., Florida Statutes, (F.S.), a list of forwarding agents that have applied for and received a Florida Certificate of Forwarding Agent Address is available on the Department of Revenue website at floridarevenue.com/taxes/sut.

Designated addresses, excluding addresses with a suite number or secondary address, confirmed to have a special five-digit ZIP code provided by the United States Postal Service are reported in the Department's electronic database at pointmatch.floridarevenue.com with a sales tax and discretionary sales surtax rate of zero.

Important Information for Forwarding Agents

As a forwarding agent that has been issued a Certificate of Forwarding Agent Address:

Your designated address must be used exclusively by you for the delivery of tangible personal property originating from a United States vendor for export from the United States through a continuous and unbroken process. Any person found to fraudulently use the address on the certificate for the purpose of evading the tax is subject to the penalties provided in s. 212.085, F.S.

You are required to remit Florida sales tax on any tangible personal property shipped to your designated forwarding agent address if no tax was collected and the tangible personal property remains in Florida or the tangible personal property is delivered to the purchaser or purchaser's representative in Florida.

You are required to maintain records as provided in s. 212.06(5)(b)8., F.S.

The Department of Revenue may revoke your Certificate of Forwarding Agent Address for noncompliance with s. 212.06(5)(b), F.S.

You are required to surrender your certificate to the Department of Revenue within 30 days after any of the following occur:

- You ceased to do business
- You changed addresses
- Your principal business activity has changed to something other than facilitating the international export of property owned by other persons, or
- The certified address is not used for export from the United States.
